

Serevi Rugby

The ACRC Bowl Series would like to thank Serevi Rugby for its generous support. Headquartered in Seattle, Serevi Rugby serves as a platform to grow the game of rugby in North America and beyond. Founded in 2010 by internationally-known rugby player and coach Waisale Serevi and a fellowship of top international players and coaches, Serevi Rugby brings instructional camps and clinics to elite and innovative coaching to rugby enthusiasts across the country. Serevi Rugby coaching methods are delivered through a variety of programs including introductory youth camps year round, developmental and high performance training camps as part of the USA Rugby Academy hosted nationwide, rugby-specific strength and conditioning programs at the Serevi Rugby Institute, and custom team training and events Powered By Serevi.

If you're interested in rugby – for yourself; your child; your college, club or community – we invite you to join Serevi and help Grow the Game.

Visit SereviRugby.com for more information.